HOUSE MOTION

MR. SPEAKER:

I move that Engrossed Senate Bill 203 be amended to read as follows:

1	Page 2, between lines 18 and 19, begin a new paragraph and insert:
2	"SECTION 2. IC 34-23-2-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
3	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 1. (a)
4	As used in this section, "child" means an unmarried individual without
5	dependents who is:
6	(1) less than twenty (20) years of age; or
7	(2) less than twenty-three (23) years of age and is enrolled in an
8	institution of higher education or in a vocational school or program
9	or is engaged in military service; or
10	(3) less than twenty-five (25) years of age and is a military
1	veteran enrolled in an institution of higher education or a
12	vocational school following active military service.
13	(b) An action may be maintained under this section against the
14	person whose wrongful act or omission caused the injury or death of
15	a child. The action may be maintained by:
16	(1) the father and mother jointly, or either of them by naming the
17	other parent as a codefendant to answer as to his or her interest;
18	(2) in case of divorce or dissolution of marriage, the person to
19	whom custody of the child was awarded; and
20	(3) a guardian, for the injury or death of a protected person.
21	(c) In case of death of the person to whom custody of a child was
22	awarded, a personal representative shall be appointed to maintain the
23	action for the injury or death of the child.
24	(d) In an action brought by a guardian for an injury to a protected

1	person, the damages inure to the benefit of the protected person.
2	(e) In an action to recover for the death of a child, the plaintiff may
3	recover damages:
4	(1) for the loss of the child's services;
5	(2) for the loss of the child's love and companionship; and
6	(3) to pay the expenses of:
7	(A) health care and hospitalization necessitated by the wrongful
8	act or omission that caused the child's death;
9	(B) the child's funeral and burial;
10	(C) the reasonable expense of psychiatric and psychological
11	counseling incurred by a surviving parent or minor sibling of
12	the child that is required because of the death of the child;
13	(D) uninsured debts of the child, including debts for which a
14	parent is obligated on behalf of the child; and
15	(E) the administration of the child's estate, including reasonable
16	attorney's fees.
17	(f) Damages may be awarded under this section only with respect
18	to the period of time from the death of the child until:
19	(1) the date that the child would have reached:
20	(A) twenty (20) years of age; or
21	(B) twenty-three (23) years of age, if the child was enrolled in
22	an institution of higher education or in a vocational school or
23	program; or program or was engaged in military service; or
24	(C) twenty-five (25) years of age, if the child was a
